Orators Begin Season With Warm-Up Tourney

Loyola College's Robert Bellarmine Debating Society opened its 1960-61 season at the University of Maryland's Warm-Up Tournament last Saturday. The topic "Resolved that the United States ought to adopt a system of compulsory health insurance" was one that is of special interest in this election year.

Varsity Affirmative

Loyola's varsity affirmative team composed of Thom Curtis and John Baynes, scored victories over Johns Hopkins and William and Mary, while losing to Trinity College. The Evergreen negative varsity team defeated American University, but lost two tough decisions, one to Navy and the other to Georgetown. Ed Slawski and Ed Connery, the regular negative team, represented the school in excellent fashion last year and are expected to carry on in the same manner this year.

Novice Debaters

There was a special debate for newcomers to the college debate level. Loyola's novice debaters were Paul Montgomery and Steve Agnes representing the affirmative, and a team of Jim Ellison and Gene Snouffer as negative debaters.

Bob Goldsmith and Father Davish represented the school at the Maryland-Washington Forensic Conference's first meeting. At the meeting it was discussed that Loyola is to have major representation in a varsity team and persuasive debater meet at the Howard Tournament. Plans were also made for an individual event contest at Trinity College, and for a second warm-up tournament to be held at Georgetown University on November 9.

New additions to the debating societies are Washington College and the University of Baltimore. It is almost certain that a tremendous rivalry will build up between Loyola and these two schools.

Baynes, Smyth Debate Before Large Crowd

Last Friday, October 21, two students of Loyola College presented their version of the current election series by a debate discussing the political qualifications and platforms of the presidential candidates.

Dennis Smyth upheld the candidacy of Vice-President Nixon, while John Baynes presented the platform of Senator Kennedy.

Mr. Smyth supported the record of the Eisenhower Administration and the Nixon platform, while terming the Democratic platform "fatalistic." Smyth also made the charge that Mr. Stevenson and Senator Fulbright have shown "a certain gullibility toward Communism."

Baynes Gains

Mr. Baynes attacked the record of the Republican Administration and made assertions that Nixon, if elected, would be hampered by previous Republican policies.

The debate was better attended than either of the two talks of preceding weeks with standing room only in the lounge. The speakers were received enthusiastically.

Dr. Kirwin Concludes Campus Political Talks

by John Feller

Last Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Harry W. Kirwin addressed a large audience in the lounge of the Andrew White Center. The purpose of the talk was a summation of the issues which have been discussed to date, in order that the students might draw some conclusions which would aid them in deciding for which candidate and party to vote.

In his non-partisan approach, Dr. Kirwin counseled those students who will be voting for the first time this November to make an intelligent use of the voting privilege.

Spot News

"Sing, Lawdie, Sing!"

Making their first appearance of the season, the Loyola College Glee Club will participate in the regional Interfaith Meeting at Morgan State College, to be held on Sunday evening, October 30, from 7 'till 8 p.m. Sponsored by Morgan, the affair will feature spiritual renditions by choral groups representing the various denominations.

Banger . . . Niner

Last Friday, Oct. 21, Dickenson College of Pennsylvania edged the 'Hound Rifle Team by 17 points in a match at Loyola. The score was 1362 to 1343, with John Dodson and Brasfield tying for high individual honors, shooting a 275 out of a possible score of 300.

"Perry Mason," Watch Out!

Harold Gil Reuschlein, dean of the Villanova Law School, spoke to a small group of students and invited them to apply for admission. The meeting was arranged by Dr. Kirwin of the History Dept.

Cheers!

Members of the Green and Gray are planning a gigantic Pep Rally, to be staged Nov. 16 in the gym. Follow the 'Hound for further facts.

A Touring Jesuit

There's cards on the campus again; happy students, no lions in the den; Sophs all head for a local bank, but we of the Greyhound say "Come back soon, Father."

To those who have already made up their mind regarding a particular candidate and party, he warned that "We can and must be intelligent in our partisanship."

In the second part of his speech, Dr. Kirwin mentioned the controversial 'prestige' issue. "Have we lost our prestige in the eyes of the world?" Accepting the evidence at hand as proof that we have, the voter must ask himself "whose fault is it?" The answer to this question must be decided by the individual. Once having made this decision, the voter must seriously ask himself if either candidate is the man to restore this lost prestige. By pursuing this arbitrary course of action, we can make an intelligent use of the voting privilege.

Great Debate Today

Four seniors will meet this morning during the activity period in the student lounge and debate on the Presidential candidates and their respective parties. John Quinn and Pat Donnelly will be the standard bearers for Jack Kennedy and the Democratic party; while Ed McCormick and John Healy, fighting against impossible odds, struggle to save Dick Nixon and the Republicans from utter oblivion.

The polls will open today following the "great debate" in the lobby outside Mac's emporium. Students may cast their ballots either today or Monday. According to the Green and Gray, the results will be published in next week's Greyhound.

PR Dance

On Saturday evening, November 5, Company G-15 of the Pershing Rifles will hold its 3rd Annual Fall Ball in Cohn Hall with (the music) for the occasion supplied by Dick Riehl.

Queen Crowned

The dance, which is open to P.R. members only, is held to welcome the P.R. pledges. At 11:00 p.m. The Pershing Rifle queen will be crowned, and the trick drill team will perform.

Tickets can be purchased for $2.50 per couple from chairman Jay Henkel, and co-chairman John Feller. Freshmen may obtain tickets from Pete Gomsac, and seniors from John Dodson.

Editorials

Greyhound Endorsement

It is a well recognized fact that the purpose of a news gathering agency is not only to present the news objectively but in some instances to interpret it. In accordance with this purpose most newspapers feel it their duty to support one or the other presidential candidate. Because we recognize this fact, we asked ourselves the following questions. Should we publicly support one or the other candidates? If so, which one? Or, by virtue of our position as a college organization, do our duties lie elsewhere?

After much thought and study we were forced to accept the unpleasant responsibilities of the latter position. Why?

Both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy are intelligent, ambitious, and very tough. Both will serve, we believe, the interests of their party. Therefore, we cannot decide the issue on the basis of the man but rather must look to the party platforms.

To do this we must examine the record. We must decide which of the two positions will best serve the country, which of the two have best served in the past.

Once we have done this we must solidify our position. To do this we must objectively examine each issue. We should critically observe the consequence of each action; be honest in accepting and recognizing their mistakes. Rule out ridicule, hearsay, and rumors. Realize that no matter how ridiculous a position may seem, no one likes poverty, no one likes war, no one likes dictatorship. Choose and choose wisely. Defend your position, not with emotions, but with facts. Listen carefully so that you may judge. And, above all, vote.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

As a result of two recent articles on the mock election campaigns penned by this writer, I have been "slandered" on several occasions by heinous charges of being decidedly pro-Republican, both in my coverage and in my sentiments. Nothing could be farther from the truth, and I would like now to set the record straight.

In the past few weeks, I have attempted, albeit unsuccessful, to present a fair and unbiased account of the campaign here at Evergreen. It has never been my aim to give advantage to one side or another. As a point of fact, I do not believe that it would be possible for me to influence any of the readers of the Greyhound one way or another, merely by a few inches of print.

For the record, however, let me state emphatically that as regards my personal sentiments, I have no secrets to hide. I am proud to cast my vote this morning for the next President of the United States, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a man who has proven by his words and deeds that he is fit and worthy to wear the mantle of greatness.

The Democratic Youth Organization wishes to express its heartfelt appreciation to Senior Dennis Smyth for his fine contribution in helping to forward the candidacy of Senator Jack Kennedy. Keep up the good work, Dennis!

After weeks of eager anticipation, juniors in advanced ROTC finally received their pay from the Treasurer of the United States, the grand sum of $10.80. This should be an incentive for any junior to get out and get out fast!

The Greyhound Salutes . . .

Janne Olson

During the past few weeks, Janne Olson and his "executive cabinet" have been seen scurrying about the campus, drumming up trade for the Sodality of the Immaculate Conception at Loyola College.

In soliciting for perspective members, Prefect Olson employs an excellent technique; when meeting or talking with Janne, he makes you feel as though you are the most important person on earth. Undoubtedly, many of the new faces on the Evergreen campus have been taken in by his warm smile, persuasive elocution, and winning personality.

A graduate of the Polytechnic Institute, Janne Olson hails from Milwaukee where he attended Don Bosco High School for two years. In spite of six years' residence in Baltimore, he still retains traces of a Wisconsin accent.

ASN Member

Last Spring, together with four of his classmates, Janne was elected to the national Jesuit honor fraternity, Alpha Sigma Nu, in recognition of his outstanding scholastic abilities.

A consistent placer on the Dean's List, he is a biology major and is looking forward to a career in medicine. Though plans are indefinite at present, he hopes to go to medical school at Georgetown.

Hospital Work

During the summer, Janne worked as a lab technician at Bon Secours Hospital here in Baltimore. "Because of me, most of the patients almost died—but not quite!"

As his duties chiefly involved placing certain forms on charts which confined him to the lab, he relates that to his disgust, he didn't get much of an opportunity to see the girls in the blue and white uniforms.

Old Organization

In addition to his heavy duties as Prefect of the Sodality, Janne Olson is also President of the Mendel (or Biology Club) one of the oldest organizations on campus, as well as a member of the St. John Berchman's Society.

A conscientious student, a hard worker, and a friendly Loyolan, the Greyhound proudly salutes "Dr." Janne Olson.

Frosh Acceptance Review Set For November 2nd.

On Wednesday, November 2, the Freshmen Acceptance Review will be held on the parade ground. The review, an annual affair here at Loyola, will feature the marching rhythms of the Second Army Field Band.

As in past years, the review was planned by the Cadet Brigade staff. Cadet Colonel John Connor heads the staff, which in addition includes: Pete Karcyewski, Fred Benson, Warren Eberhardt, Larry Sheridan, Dick Prodey and Rol Sturm.

Review Preview

During the first hour of drill, a brief rehearsal will be given to the cadets. In the second hour, the actual review featuring a well-coming address to the Freshmen from Father Galvin, will be given.

After Father Galvin's address, the ten senior cadets who have been designated as Distinguished Military Students will be awarded certificates appropriate to their title. The Cadre (Col. Kadick, and Captains Wightman, Lawrence and Fryendall) formally invites all parents of the freshmen to attend.

Glee Club

No other activity raises school spirit so much as a good Glee Club. Loyola's men of song have already begun their year by interpreting the Alma Mater for the freshmen and by singing at the solemn high Mass of the Holy Ghost.

The Glee Club is again under the very able and talented direction of Miss Virginia Reincke. Miss Reincke, a concert pianist, is choral director for three other local glee clubs.

Officers

Officers for the year are: Bob Wright, President; Joe Baginski, Vice-president; Larry Ondrejack, Secretary; Stephen Pretl, Treasurer; Adelio Maccentelli, Librarian and Walt Truszkowski, Business Manager.

Rehearsals for the group will commence the week of September 25 in Cohn Hall. On Nov. 23 the Glee Club will again lend their voices to Loyola Night.

To The Hospital

During the Christmas season they will continue their worthy policy of singing carols at four local Catholic hospitals. They will do a tape of these for broadcast over Station WFBR.

In the first weeks of December the Glee Club will travel to Washington to practice with the Dumbarton College Glee Club.

Galudet U. Foe Of Harriers Today

by Sam Levin

Today the "Hound" harriers take on a new opponent in the form of Gallaudet College. This is a home meet and will begin at three. The team is slowly beginning to shape

Rol Sturm VIEWS Sports

by Rol Sturm

With the addition of a capable offense to an already capable and experienced defense the Hound booters have established themselves as a power to be reckoned with in the Mason-Dixon Conference. The offense has proven itself to be more than adequate especially in the Georgetown, Gallaudet, and Mount games.

Crucial Game

This week the Hounds are facing the other king pins of the conference, and the outcome of these games will undoubtedly decide the eventual winner of the Northern Division of the conference. Tomorrow Loyola's booters travel to the Johns Hopkins campus to take on the ever rugged Blue Jays. Then on Tuesday Evergreen will be the scene of an interesting fray, which regardless of the outcome of the other games, will find the Hounds out to avenge a 0-5 loss from last years contest.

Last Tuesday the Loyola Soccer team won its fifth league game in a 'squeaker' over Western Maryland on the loser's field. Outstanding freshman Dennis Grabowski scored unassisted from his center forward position to give him fifteen for the season.

W. M. Leads

Western Maryland took a 1-0 lead early in the first quarter. Later in the same quarter Grabowski stole the ball from W.M. defense man, Ed Hoffman, and pushed it in for the equalizer.

There was no more scoring until the fourth quarter when Denny banged home the winner on an outside shot.

Terrors Turned

Playing their best game of the year the defensive fullbacks, Rick Campbell and Wade Bowman and goalie Don Wallenhorst turned the terrors back time after time.

GET 'EM WHILE THEY'RE HOT!!!

Beginning Monday November 2nd, the 1959-60 basketball seasonbooks will become available, free of charge, to all day students presenting their registration cards at the athletic office in the gym.

In the past, both card and a small snapshot (which was attached to the cover and used for identification purposes) were required to obtain a book, but this year, NO PICTURE WILL BE NEEDED.

up and should be able to use this afternoon as a good team workout in preparation for the tough part of their schedule which they re-embark upon next Wednesday. The opposition will then be furnished by the Jays of Hopkins in a meet taking place at their nest.

Easy Time

But returning to today's meet, the team, spearheaded by Rick Frampton, Lew Smith, Bucky McCarthy, The Kenney boys, and Bill Jenkins should have a comparatively easy victory against our Washingtonian opposition.

By the time the team runs against Hopkins on Wednesday all should be fine. Coach McElroy must be thankful of the meet's coming out that week rather than before. With Bill Jenkins, Bucky McCarthy, and Denny Voith ailing at that time, "Hound" cross-country rooters would not have a chance of even hoping for a possible victory.

Physical Shape Improved

But everyone seems to look well, even if they do not feel the same, and a top effort will be given. Hopkins presents an interesting obstacle as they also have an unbeaten harrier. We wondered what Rick would do under pressure and he should have some in this meet.

Absence of Big Man Could Hurt Freshman Squad

The 1960-61 Hound B-Squad basketball team shows some good promise for the coming season. Only a lack of a real big man to play the center position could prevent the B team from a fine year. There are three or four boys who are really adept at putting the ball through the hoop.

Loyola High Products

Leading freshmen candidates are two All-Maryland performers from Loyola. 6'0" Alex Cummings carried a 20 point average for the Dons last year, while 6'2" teammate Jody Satterfield distinguished himself as a fine all around player and team leader.

Satterfield, Cummings, Carew, Burchell and Rudolph appear to have the inside track on the starting five at the present. The others should see plenty of action in the course of the season.

Coach Nap Doherty said the team will probably play a 3-2 switching offense. "The main purpose of the frosh team is to groom the players for Varsity competition," coach Doherty said. "Our main problems will be a lack of height and depth, but we'll be out there giving it everything we've got."

In future years much will be heard from these promising frosh, but right now they are looking only to a winning season.

Hounds Face Jays In Big Tilt Sat.

by Darrell Russell

At Evergreen tomorrow the (2:30) Loyola soccer team faces its latest obstacle in its quest for the Mason-Dixon title in the form of always tough Johns Hopkins University. The Blue Jays and the Grey Hounds battled to a 2-2 standoff in last years skirmish.

Hounds In Second

Presently, the Hound kickers are in second place with a record of 5-1 their lone loss at the hands of C. U. Undeclared Hopkins, Lynchburg and B. U. are tied for first. Loyola must beat Hopkins when they continue their long rivalry tomorrow, in order to stay in contention.

Must Game

All indications point to a very exciting game against the Charles Street visitors. A good crowd last Saturday spurred the team to a 6-1 rout of Georgetown. Tommy Lind and the players express their gratitude and we hope school spirit will help again tomorrow in this must game.

Effinger Tells Of Georgetown Victory

by Bucky Effinger

Saturday's game marked the first time in four games that the Greyhound squad was scored upon.

Those fans who witnessed the game Saturday saw another inspired battle by the Green and Gray. The game began as if it would be repetitious of last years 1-0 victory by the Hounds as play seasawed back and forth and it wasn't until the second quarter that things broke loose. In the second quarter, Loyola scored five times, as to none by G. U. The ball was practically in Hoya territory the entire twenty-two minutes. I was fortunate enough to start things off when I kicked a loose ball into the corner thanks to the screen of both teams. Denny Grabowski then made three consecutive goals on a solo play, a beautiful lead pass from Joe Kosiorek through the middle which Grabowski quickly turned into a score, and a head ball off my toe on a corner kick situation.

The second half of play was marked by rough play by both sides, with Georgetown losing quite a few players because of unsportsmanlike conduct, and we lost our goalie "Billy Martin" Wallenhorst after much aggravation from the Hoyas center forward. Bill "Race horse" Knoche ended his scoreless famine as he nudged in a pass from outside left Vic Broccolino. Also in this quarter G. U. scored their only goal and it marked the first time in the last four games that we have been scored upon.

In the fourth quarter coach Tommy Lind substituted freely, and our reserves continued the fine defensive play which has come to be a characteristic of this year's team.

Intramural Items

by Matt Schwientek

Sharks Top Chem-Meds

Joe Enoch starred for the Sharkskin their 12-8 win over the Chem-Meds. The Sharks garnered all their points in the first half as Enoch scored on a 25 yard run and a 40 yard interception. Nap Doherty claims that this freshman squad will be hard to handle in the future.

Moleskins 14 Mafia 0

The Sharks next opponent will be the Moleskins, who won a hotly disputed contest over the Mafia 14-0. The Skins tallied their first score when Mafia center Tom Fields centered the ball over the head of Jim Lamar to register a safety for the Furymen.

John Coleman finally got the Moles offense going and he climaxed a 50 yd. drive with a 10 yd. scoring pass to Pete Powley. Lou Lomp then intercepted a Mafia pass and behind fine blocking ran 40 yds. for the final score of the game.

Houndogs Deck Dorseys

Another contest saw the Houndogs defeat the Dorseys 21-0 as Mike Rose threw three touchdown passes. Mike hit Nick Jackson for two scoring tosses and Barry Truax for another.
